

Breathing life into the nostalgic sounds of shoegaze and dream pop, Kaurua Land / Adelaide based quartet Sunsick Daisy quickly captured audiences with their effortless energy and genre-diverse sound.

Since their debut single 'Someone Like You' placed them as Triple J Unearthed High finalists in 2022, Sunsick Daisy have been unstoppable - selling out several headline shows and sharing the stage with the likes of Ball Park Music, The Buoys, Feeder and more.

Their debut EP, 'Breathe In... Breathe Out' received acclaim from triple J, The AU Review and premiere US radio station KEXP where it was added to rotation and peaked at #49 in their Top 90 charts.

Having spent most of 2024 taking their magnetic live show around Australia and supporting acts like Aleksiah, Death By Denim, Suzi and more, the band released two singles - 'Over & Over' and 'Hideaway' - receiving high praise.

2025 so far has seen Sunsick Daisy release their latest single, 'It'll Be Alright', to coincide with their national tour around Australia, headlining shows in Newcastle, Sydney, and Melbourne, as well as playing supports in Canberra and Wollongong. The band are now gearing up for the release of their sophomore EP and an exciting year of national touring.
